

NCC's Third Decade (3-D) Conference
March 22-23, 2010 at University of Pennsylvania
Charting New Partnerships to Support Japanese Studies in the Global Information Society
Irvine Conference Center, University of Pennsylvania

Monday March 22, 2010 (Monday Morning Session), Amado Recital Hall

9:00-9:10 Welcome and Statement of Conference Goals

Keiko Yokota-Carter, NCC Chair and Japanese Studies Librarian, University of Washington

9:10-9:40 NCC and the Field of Japanese Studies

Reflections by Isao Tsujimoto, Director General, Japan Foundation New York and Margaret Mihori, Associate Executive Director, Japan-US Friendship Commission

9:50-10:50 Faculty Panel: Voices from Scholars in the Field

Confirmed Participants: Doug Slaymaker (Literature and Culture) University of Kentucky; Kyle Ikeda (Language and Literature), University of Vermont; Julie Davis (Art History) University of Pennsylvania; A. Maria Toyoda (Political Science), Villanova University; Moderated by Ellen Hammond, Curator of the East Asian Collection, Yale University Libraries

11:00-12:00 Where is Japan in the Global Information Society? The View of National Librarians:

Makoto Nagao, Librarian, National Diet Library of Japan (via video); Deanna Marcum, Associate Librarian for Library Services, Library of Congress; Interviewed by Patricia Steinhoff, Professor of Sociology, University of Hawaii

12:10-1:40 Luncheon Session: Café 58, Irvine Conference Center

Mingling and Speed Mentoring, around the table [groups assigned]
 With greetings from Kristina Troost, President, Council on East Asian Libraries

Monday March 22, 2010 (Afternoon Session)

Breakout sessions: Irvine Conference Center (Ground Floor Breakout Rooms)

Facilitators will present issues and ideas at each session, note-takers will compile ideas from each group duplicate and related recommendations will be grouped. Two related sessions will be given on each topic to enable participants to attend sessions on all six selected topics. This will facilitate discussion of related themes under given topics.

Proposition 1	Best Practices 1
(Prop 1) Topic: Promoting Collections &amp; Access Facilitator: Dawn Lawson Action Question: Should NCC develop systems for the national distribution of digital resources?	(Best 1) Topic: Exploring/Scrutinizing our Collections with New Perspective Facilitator: Kuniko McVey Action Question: How to most effectively reveal the hidden treasures in your collections?

Session 1: 1:45-2:45

Session 2: 2:50-3:50

4:00-5:00 Wrap Up and Debriefing on Monday Sessions led by Peter Young, Chief of the Asian Division, Library of Congress

6:00-7:30 Vendor's Buffet Reception: Sheraton Philadelphia University City Hotel
Ben Franklin Ballroom 1-2-3

Tuesday March 23, 2010 (Morning Session), Amado Recital Hall, Irvine Conference Center

9:00-9:15      Opening of the 2nd Day led by Keiko Yokota-Carter

Breakout sessions: Irvine Conference Center (Ground Floor Breakout Rooms)

Facilitators will present issues and ideas at each session, note-takers will compile ideas from each group duplicate and related recommendations will be grouped. Two related sessions will be given on each topic to enable participants to attend sessions on all six selected topics. This will facilitate discussion of related themes under given topics.

Proposition 2	Best Practices 2
Topic: What information literacy skills do our researchers need in the 21st century? Facilitator: Sharon Domier Action Question: What do librarians need to know and do to serve these users?	Topic: The Well Connected Librarian: Managing the Tools for Optimal Engagement Facilitator: Maureen Donovan Action Question: How can we use our time and our technology to the greatest advantage?

(Session 3) 9:20-10:20

(Session 4) 10:25-11:25

11:25-12:25      Lunch Hosted by University of Pennsylvania Library, Café 58,

Greetings from H. Carton Rogers, III, Vice Provost and Director of Libraries at the University of Pennsylvania

March 23, 2010 (Tuesday Afternoon Session)

Breakout sessions: Irvine Conference Center (Ground Floor Breakout Rooms)

Facilitators will present issues and ideas at each session, note-takers will compile ideas from each group duplicate and related recommendations will be grouped. Two related sessions will be given on each topic to enable participants to attend sessions on all six selected topics. This will facilitate discussion of related themes under given topics.

Proposition 3	Best Practices 3
Topic: NCC's Ongoing Projects Facilitator: Toshie Marra Action Question: Should NCC keep doing what it has always done?	Topic: Undergraduate Teaching: Reaching and inspiring in all languages Facilitator: Haruko Nakamura Action Question: How can faculty and librarians better collaborate to the benefit of undergraduates?

(Session 5) 12:30-1:30

(Session 6) 1:35-2:35

2:45-4:15      Facilitated Recommendations Session: Amado Recital Hall, Irvine Conference Center

Led by Peter Young, Chief of the Asian Division, Library of Congress,
Large Group discussion and prioritization of recommendations.

4:20-5:00      Final Wrap-Up, Sign-Ups! & Thank You's led by Keiko Yokota-Carter

Principal funding for NCC's Third Decade Conference was provided by the Japan-US Friendship Commission, with supplemental support from the Japan Foundation, Toshiba International Foundation, Northeast Asia Council of the AAS, the University of Pennsylvania Libraries, Center for East Asian Studies University of Pennsylvania with cooperation from the Greater Philadelphia Asian Studies Consortium Faculty Group
The NCC wishes to thank all these funders and collaborators as well as the many colleagues who attended this conference from throughout North America, Japan and Western Europe. We hope that programs resulting from their recommendations made at the 3-D Conference will benefit those who study Japan everywhere. Thank you for taking part!