

Japan Art Catalog (JAC) Western Art Project
at Columbia University
Report to the NCC Board, January 2008

I. Project Summary: Columbia University receives exhibition catalogs on Western art, which are cataloged in the Starr East Asian Library Technical Services Division for housing in the Avery Architecture and Fine Arts Library.

II. Materials Received:

Nov. 5, 2007 : 1 catalog, published in 2007, from Freer Gallery

Nov. 13, 2007 : 32 Western art catalogs published in the 1970s to 1990s; from Harvard-Yenching Library.

III. Duplicates:

Sent 2 boxes of duplicate exhibition catalogs to the following name/address:

Sharon Domier
c/o Technical Services, Frost Library
Amherst College,
Amherst, MA 01002

Duplicate details are the following;

Western art exhibition catalogs (JACWA Project) = 22 title 22 volumes

Japanese art exhibition catalogs = 13 title 14 volumes (from 193 titles 196 volumes and 1 mirror, 1 bag received on Sept. 26, from Freer Gallery)

(Submitted by Sachie Noguchi, JAC-W coordinator at Columbia)