

Report from the Digital Resource Committee
North American Coordinating Council on Japanese Library Resources
Meeting of January 16 and 17th, 2009 at the Princeton University
Submitted by Keiko Yokota-Carter, Chair until December 2008

.....

1. New DRC Chair : Ms. Dawn Lawson New York University

2. Reach out the institutions without Japanese Studies Librarians.

Actions:

- a. “A list of the commercial Japanese digital resources”

<http://www.fas.harvard.edu/~ncc/drc/listofdatabases.html>

NCC’s disclaimer

“The NCC’s Digital Resources Committee provides this list as a public service to the field of Japanese studies in North America. Neither NCC nor the DRC receive compensation from vendors for this service and in no way endorse any specific digital resources. New materials will be added to the list as they become available. If there are other digital resources that should be added to the list, please contact the DRC Chair.”

- b. Dissemination of the information at several listserves.

- c. Reach out scholars by attending conferences, etc.
For example, attend the conference of the Association of Teachers of Japanese.

- d. Provide DRC support information at vendor’s booth at the AAS exhibition area.

- e. Others?