

Japanese Language Digital Resources Workshops
Offered by the
North American Coordinating Council on Japanese Library Resources

Venues for 2008-2010 (as of December 2008)

Japanese electronic resources workshops during 2008-09:

November 14, 2008 Basic Hands-on Instruction in Japanese-Language Digital Resources for Research and Teaching (given at Northwestern University). To help trainees become more effective searchers by acquainting them with a variety of Japanese-language electronic resources including: library and union catalogs of books and serials, journal/magazine article databases, newspaper article databases, web sites, and other reference tools for conducting research in Japanese studies. Instructor, Chiaki Sakai, coordinated by Qunying Li qunying-li@northwestern.edu.

Week of February 2-6, 2009: Three Workshops on Digital Resources for the Study of Japanese Law offered by Robert Britt, Japanese Legal Resources Specialist at the University of Washington Law School (at UC Berkeley, UCLA, and UC San Diego). For further information on these workshops, please contact local coordinators Yuki Ishimatsu ishimatsu@berkeley.edu, Toshie Marra tmarra@library.ucla.edu or Sanae Isozumi sisozumi@ucsd.edu.

FRIDAY, March 27, 2009: Japanese Images: Using Them to Support Japan Studies Internationally, introducing the NCC's new Guidelines to the Best Practices for Accessing Visual Images from Japan. [AAS Workshop: # 61]. Discussants include publishers, museum specialists and faculty who will review the guidelines, discuss proposed best practices and seek feedback from the field.

The IUP Guidelines are being freely and bilingually published on the NCC Website to include:

- Best Practices for locating and requesting images from Japan for teaching, research and publications;
- Permission letter templates and photo release forms for publication;
- A list of related contacts and links to important sites and organizations in Japan.

Thursday, April 23, 2009: “Scholarly Resources for Teaching and Research on East Asia: a Workshop.” At Dickinson College in association with the Associated College Libraries of Central Pennsylvania. Taught by Yunshan Ye, Dickinson East Asian Librarian, and Sharon Domier, East Asian Studies Librarian University of Massachusetts-Amherst. For further details please contact coordinator Yunshan Ye yey@dickinson.edu.

April 29-30, 2009: Symposium in commemoration of the 30th anniversary of the Gordon W. Prange Collection at the University of Maryland, College Park. April 29, 2009 Keynote lecture by MIT Professor John Dower (details TBA) followed by a reception in honor of the Prange's 30th Anniversary. April 30, 2009 Workshop on Using Japanese Visual Images: to Support teaching, research and publications in Japan studies, the first in a national series of workshops for faculty and students in applying the NCC Guidelines to the Best Practices for Accessing Visual Images from Japan. For further information please contact coordinator Eiko Sakaguchi eikos@umd.edu.

Japanese electronic resources workshops to be offered during 2009-10:

July XX, 2009: Japanese Studies Association of Australia (JSAA), University of New South Wales, Sydney: An International Workshops on Using Japanese Visual Images: to Support teaching, research and publications in Japan studies, the first in an international series of workshops for faculty and students in applying the NCC Guidelines to the Best Practices for Accessing Visual Images from Japan. Coordinated by Michelle Hall hall@unimelb.edu.au

August XX, 2009 (TBD): International Federation of Library Associations (IFLA) Milan, Italy. An International Workshops on Using Japanese Visual Images: to Support teaching, research and publications in Japan studies, the second in an international series of workshops for faculty and students in applying the NCC Guidelines to the Best Practices for Accessing Visual Images from Japan to their work. A satellite program to be finalized.

September xx, 2009 (TBD): European Association of Japanese Resources Specialists (EAJRS) at the Sainsbury Institute, London, England: An International Workshops on Using Japanese Visual Images: to Support teaching, research and publications in Japan studies, the third in an international series of workshops for faculty and students in applying the NCC Guidelines to the Best Practices for Accessing Visual Images from Japan to their work. Coordinator TBD.

A series of at least 4 workshops will be planned in various regions of North America and announced shortly. For more information on the NCC's E-Resources Initiative, on past workshops in this series, and for lesson plans and other resources, please visit the NCC's Information Literacy Portal at <http://www.fas.harvard.edu/~ncc/eresources/index.html>. To take part in one of the above workshops please contact the local coordinators listed for each venue.

To propose a future workshop for this series please contact Victoria Bestor, NCC Executive Director at vbester@fas.harvard.edu. The NCC's ongoing E-Resources Workshop series is made possible by a grant from the Japan Foundation with additional support being sought from other funders. Local co-funders and project coordinators handle registration and all local logistics.